

THE DISRUPTED FUTURE OF FINANCE

THURSDAY 13 JUNE 2019

9.00am - 3.00pm

Ivy Ballroom

Level 1, 320 George Street

Sponsored By

technologyone

9.00am	Registration
9.20am	Formal Welcome & Acknowledgement to Country Chris Wild, NSW/ACT Commercial Director, Property Council of Australia
9.25am	Sponsor Welcome TechnologyOne
9.30am	Introduction We've had a successful period of growth for Property in Australia, but the cycle is changing. We kick off the day with explaining why thats important for finance teams to understand. Patrick Barrett
9.50am	Predictions for Finance 2025 Whether it's phone apps, home automation or cashless commerce, digital disruption is the new normal for consumers today. It's changing what we do - and how we get things done - in countless ways. What does this have to do with the future of finance? Everything. What this means for Finance – Work, worker and workplace. Alex Collinson, Partner, Deloitte
10.10am	How the Data Economy is Changing the World for Finance The way we use data is changing at an exponential rate. With the emergence of the data economy how are you placed to be someone that thrive in the new age? Steve Timms, Technology & Cloud, CoreLogic
10.30am	Embedding Data Analytics into Finance With embedded analytics, companies drive actionable analysis, enforce business processes and gain meaningful insight into company performance across multiple departments and teams. Tom Crawford, Director, Data Assurance, PwC
10.50am	Morning Tea
11.20am	Reimagine Finance in the 21st Century – Move Beyond Entering Transactions in a Digital World Smart finance teams in highly competitive markets, like the property sector, are taking simple steps to set the foundations for digital transformation while driving change in their organisations. Hear some real-world examples of how property finance leaders are taking the first actionable steps towards digital business transformation to move away from being number crunchers to outcome owners and being the drivers of business change. Luke Fleming, Industry Manager, TechnologyOne

11.50am	Business Partnering A finance business partner is a professional who works alongside other business areas, supporting and advising their strategic and operational decision-making through insights that drive better business performance. We will explore what it takes to be a true business partner, and how that adds value to your business. Andrew Jepson, Director/Owner, Vincero Consulting
12.20pm	Lunch
1.00pm	How Finance can be Agents of Organisational Change By taking a 'change agent' approach to business, finance professionals can enhance their value to their organisations, create new career opportunities for themselves and drive their companies into the future. Eve Johnson, Director Markets , EY
1.30pm	Lessons from Business Transformations Finance transformations have moved from offshoring roles to embracing technology. We will speak with an organisation who have been through the experience, and can reflect on what went well and what could be done differently. TBA
2.00pm	What do Leaders Need from their Finance Teams? Alison Harrop, Chief Financial Officer, Dexus Oliver Stiles, Head of Finance, Real Estate, AMP Capital Adrienne Revai, Chief Operating Officer, JLL Moderated by Belinda Ngo, Executive Director - Capital Markets, Property Council of Australia
2.25pm	Personal Development With the role of the finance professional changing so much in the next 10 years, how can you invest in your own self-development to ensure that your career is future proofed? Dr Lana Ledgerwood, Talent, Diversity & Change, Charter Hall
3.00pm	Close

